

Justified By Faith In Christ

I'm justified by faith in Christ, yes that will be my plea,
That He who died and then was raised my hope will ever be.
And had I put my trust in works, those works that were my own,
“Away from me” would be His cry, “to me you are not known.”
I'm justified by faith in Christ, faith in Christ alone.
I'm justified by faith in Christ, faith in Christ alone.

In depths of sheer depravity, my soul was doomed to waste,
Until in grace-filled sovereignty God gave me saving faith.
“Awake, up from the dead arise!” The Christ did call me forth,
And opened eyes that once were blind to see His endless worth.
I'm justified by faith in Christ and that the gift of God.
I'm justified by faith in Christ and that the gift of God.

*I have no other hope for peace with my Creator,
I have no other hope for knowing God as Father,
Than Jesus Christ, the only God, the only Mediator.
Give glory to His name, now and forever.*

Oh downcast soul, come hear His voice ring out from Calvary,
‘Tis finished now and evermore, the saving work complete!
Come cast yourself on purest grace and find salvation sweet,
Come wash yourself in righteous blood and find your perfect plea.
Be justified by faith in Christ, the Christ of Calvary.
Be justified by faith in Christ, the Christ of Calvary.
