

Only Blood

My heart is hostile to You
In its natural state;
I am inclined towards sin.
Unless I turn towards You,
Unless I turn to the cross,
I make myself my own king.

Yes, we were children of wrath,
Our hearts opposed to the truth,
We followed our own desires.
Only a man who is pure,
Whose heart is solely for God
Could hope to save us from fire.

I know the wages of my sin is death;
To face forever without You.
But You have given me new life in Christ,
He bore my payment once in full.

Chorus

*Only blood can save me now:
That of Heaven's Lamb.
Only Christ can make a way:
One both God and man.*

Without the shedding of blood,
I cannot know peace with God,
Or know forgiveness of sin.
Yet in the Son I am free,
His blood was poured out for me,
And He has welcomed me in.

I am alive – You have given me new life in Christ.
I am alive – Because of Jesus I'm alive
